

SEMINAR ON CURRENT TOPICS IN CORPUS LINGUISTICS

(8th - 9th July, Faculty of Philology, University of Santiago de Compostela)

8th July

9:30 - 10:00 Official opening

10:00 - 11:30 Dominique Longrée (Université de Liège): Lemmatising and tagging a corpus: which information for which linguistic purposes? The example of the Greek and Latin LASLA databases compared to others.

11:30 - 12:00 Break

12:00 - 13:30 Amaya Mendikoetxea (Universidad Autónoma de Madrid): Designing and exploiting a learner corpus as a tool for Second Language Acquisition research.

13:30 - 16:00 Lunch

16:00 - 17:30 Sebastian Hoffmann (Universität Trier): "Manual annotation" of corpus data.

17:30 - 18:00 Break

18:00 - 19:30 Round table (coord. Ignacio Palacios) (Universidade de Santiago de Compostela): New Perspectives and Developments in Corpus Linguistics.

9th July

10:00 - 11:30 Christiane Fellbaum (Princeton University): Semantic annotation of corpora.

11:30 - 12:00 Break

12:00 - 13:30 Mark Davies (Brigham Young University): Why corpus architecture matters (or: why a corpus is much more than just a balanced collection of texts).

13:30 - 16:00 Lunch

16:00 - 17:30 Christian Mair (Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg): Grammatical change in present-day English: convergence and divergence in speech and writing.